In this class, we identify and explain significant trends and changes by focusing on contemporary culture, politics, and social movements in Latin America and the Caribbean. Class discussions, film viewings, readings, and assignments will focus on five key themes:

- authority and control
- revolution and resistance
- migration and diaspora
- development and the environment
- pop culture