US FOREIGN RELATIONS WITH LATIN AMERICA AND THE CARIBBEAN

by Charles Barclay
Foreign Department Deputy
Director of the Office of Caribbean Affairs

Charles Barclay has been a member of the U.S. Foreign Service for 19 years. He is currently the Deputy Director of the Office of Caribbean Affairs in the Bureau of Western Hemisphere Affairs, Department of State.

He has served in Europe, Latin America, Africa and Southeast Asia. His two most recent assignments abroad were in Malaysia, as Counselor for Public Affairs, and Bosnia, where he managed democracy promotion and national reconciliation projects for the U.S. Embassy after the Dayton peace accords.

He was spokesman for the Department of State's Bureau of Western Hemisphere Affairs from 2001 to 2003, and Deputy Director of the Office of Andean Affairs from 2003 to 2004.
