

III LATIN AMERICAN & CARIBBEAN GRADUATE STUDENT CONFERENCE

The Third Latin American and the Caribbean Graduate Students Conference is an interdisciplinary space for students working on Latin America and the Caribbean.

This conference is a space for Graduate students from Universities of the area to present papers, current projects, and dissertations, exchange ideas and information, as well as an opportunity to meet other students and professors.

The panels will discuss topics related to literature, history, politics, sociology and anthropology in the 19th and 20th century.

Wednesday, October 24, 2007

9:30 AM Panel 1: Social Movements and Politics in Latin America.

Moderator: TBA

11:15 AM Panel 2: Media and History.

Moderator: Dr. Judith Freidenberg

1:30 PM Panel 3: Narrating the Nation in 19th Century Latin American Literature.

Moderator: Dr. Laura Demaría

3:30 PM KEYNOTE SPEAKER: MARY KAY VAUGHAN

Thursday, October 25, 2007

9:30 AM Panel 4: Senses and Spaces in 20th Century Literature.

Moderator: Dr. Eyda Merediz

11:00 AM Panel 5: A regard into Black Latin America History and Urban Poor Women.

Moderator: Dr. Daryle Williams

1:30 PM Panel 6: Informal Politics, Guerrilla and Insurgency in late 20th Century.

Moderator: Dr. Nick Copeland

October 24 and 25, 2007 - St. Mary's Hall, Multipurpose Room

department of
SPANISH & PORTUGUESE