LECTURES

*The Latin American Studies Center
Presents:*

"MEXICAN WARS IN BLACK AND
WHITE: A RE/VISION OF ELENA
GARRO AND OCTAVIO PAZ"

By Dr. Sandra Messinger Cypess

Her work deals with a comparison of the ideas of Octavio Paz and Elena Garro regarding key periods in Mexican history: the Conquest, the Mexican Revolution, the Spanish Civil War, the Tlatelolco Massacre of 1968. In the final chapter, she will explore the "gender wars," or their difficult personal relationship.
