

Mexico @ MD

September 22 - 26, 2008 - University of Maryland

Mo., Sep. 22 11:00 am - 12:30 pm

Lecture: "U.S.-Mexico Relations: Distant Neighbors or Strategic Partners?" by Andrew Seele of the Woodrow Wilson Center.

Place: Adele H. Stamp Student Union, Margaret Brent Room.

Tu., Sep. 23 10:00 am - 11:00 am

Lecture: "Katherine Ann Porter and Mexico" by Beth Alvarez, archive-curator of the Katherine Porter exhibit and papers.

Place: Hornbake Library, Room "J".

Wed., Sep. 24 6:00 pm (Date changed)

Film: "El Violin"

Mexico's most awarded film; 13 awards and 6 nominations.

Place: Adele H. Stamp Student Union, Hoff Theater.

Wed., Sep 24, 11:00 am - 12:00 pm

Lecture: "The Centrality of Nепantla in Conquest-era Nahua Philosophy" by Dr. James Maffie.

Place: Francis Scott Key / Room 0102.

Th., Sep. 25 12:00 pm - 1:00 pm

Ballet of Maru Montero. Mexican folkloric dance.

Place: Adele H. Stamp Student Union, Baltimore Room.

Th., Sep. 25 5:00 pm

Stamp Student Union Gallery/CONNECTA opening ceremony by Alejandra de la Paz. Featuring Mexican and local artists.

Curator: Jackie Milad.

Place: Adele H. Stamp Student Union Gallery.

Organized by the Latin American Studies Center and Stamp Student Union Gallery