LASC Recipients 2010-2011

José Pablo Acuahuitl (History) “Universalizing the Mexican Culture: Reformulating the Notion of National Culture, 1946-1964”

Carlos Flores López (Biology) “Evolutionary History of Trypanosoma cruzi Strains in Mexico”

Alexander Forde (Behavior Ecology Evolution and Systematics) “Do Terrestrial Predators Regulate Arthropod Populations and Increase Productivity in Mangrove Ecosystems?”

Shari Orisich (History) “In Danger of Perversion: A History of Youth and the Nation in the Mexican Miracle”

Romina Gazis (Plant and Sciences and Landscape Architecture) “Fungal Endophytes of Rubber Trees: Searching for Potential Biocontrol Agents”

John Michael Ryan (Sociology) “Toward a World-Historical Understanding of the Relationship between Populism and Inequality in Latin America”

Sarah Walsh (History) “Reason and Faith: A Study of Interwar Chilean Eugenic Discourse”

Joshua Walker (History) “Garbage and the Politics of Post-Consumption in Rural Mexico: A Window to Community Formation in the Twentieth Century”

Breanne Robertson (Art History and Archeology) “Forging a New World Nationalism: Ancient Mexico in United States Art and Visual Culture, 1933-1945”